SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST HIM

sensational Yesterday afternoon. testimony was given in the cross examination of Mrs. coleman in the divorce case of Anna C. Coleman against Albert Coleman, implicating an Ogden physician in a criminal op-eration. She also made a statement as to a blackmailing scheme.

Mrs. Coleman testified that upon committee; Julia three different occasions Dr. Estes E. Shaw, clerk." performed a criminal operation upon her and that she was sent to the doctor for that purpose by her husband. The witness also said that the de-fendant and a certain woman devised a plan by which a certain business man of this city was to be inveigled into the Eldora rooming house and induced to enter into a compromising relationship, whereupon he should be arrested and taken to the police station, the expectation being that he would pay a sum of money to avoid public scandal. She said that she thwarted the plans by sending word to the business man that he had better not come to the rooming house, as he was going to be jobbed.

Mr. Coleman denies that he advised wife to be operated upon by Dr. Estes, but he says that he knows of two operations that his wife has un-dergone of her own volition.

On the witness stand this forenoon, Coleman told of some of the troubles he has had with his wife. He said that upon one occasion while he was turning the washing machine, his wife became angry because some of the water splashed upon the floor and she struck him over the back with a chair. The witness said that on September 28 he forced the door of his wife's room and found her in a compromising position with a man named Ukard. He said that he pre-tended to go out on his run as brakeman on the Rio Grande, in the afternoon, but went only as far as the crossing when he returned. He suspicioned his wife and Ukard and at a few minutes after midnight, accompanied by Sergeant Peterson, entered the room and had Mrs. Coleman and Ukard arrested.

Mrs. Coleman and Ukard were ar rested and their case is now pending in the municipal court.

The parties have two children, a boy and a girl, and each is asking for divorce and the custody of the chil-dren, each claiming that the other is unfit to keep them. Coleman will be content with only the boy who, it is claimed, is much attached to him

A number of witnesses are testify-ing for both sides in corroboration of the statements made by the princi-

THE MERRY COUNTESS

Big Musical Comedy in Ogden Next Week.

Local theatrical interest will be stimulated by the announcement of the coming to this city in the near future, after long engagements both in London and New York, of "The a delightful, tuneful operetta in three acts, with original production and cast of exeptional talent

The story of "The Merry Countess" is bright and sparkling and trips along as if on silvery heels, stopping now and then just long enough to permit Strauss to fascinate his listeners with an intoxicating waltz measure.

In addition to a formidable array of cosmopolitan talent, is the original chorus of bewitching beauties, gowned in the choicest conceits of the fashionable modiste's art. "The Merry Countess" will play the Orpheum theatre next Wednesday. sale opens Monday .-- Advertisement.

KNOCKED DOWN: DRIVER IS HEAVILY FINED

Within an hour after the buggy in which Adino Seifini was driving had struck a three-year-old child, the man was arraigned before Judge W. H. pleaded not guilty. Judge Reeder held that a check must be put on fast driving and carelessness.

The little girl was the daughter of Mrs. Bessie Wieman of San Francis-co, who had stopped off in Ogden between trains. Although the little one was rolled around on the pavement after being struck by the axic of the buggy, she was not seriously injured. During the police court session, she played happily with a rag doll.

The accident occurred at Twentyat about 9 o'clock. According to the testimony of P. C. Richardson, Frank Bair and the girl's mother, Selfini was driving south on Washington avenue at such a rate as to attract attention. At Twenty-fifth street, Mrs. Wieman, the little girl and two other children crossed the street. The buggy hub struck the girl and sent her down on the payement.

TALKING MOTION PICTURES

All hail to the wizard Edison, no otion pictures ever before exhibited in this city have been more profoundpictures that will be seen at the Ormorrow. They possess a scientific value that cannot be attributed to the pictures of the familiar black and white or garden variety. Not only are the pictures shown on a larger screen than usual, but the distinciness of the voice and the synchronization of the subjects shown is wonderfully realistic.

Nothing has ever been invented that could so clearly illustrate the educa-tional value as these wonderful talk-ing motion pictures. No more re-markable achievement of this new photography has ever been revealed in this city. The pictures are both The pictures are both dramatic and tragic.
